

DARK HORSE SPORTS

UI/UX Designer

Roles & Responsibilities

The candidate needs to drive the UI/UX of the web portals, android and iOS applications for various products. The skills would include

- Conceptualizing and Designing the UX of desktop sites, mobile sites, mobile apps and portals on Adobe photoshop, Adobe Illustrator or any other advanced tools.
- Converting the approved wireframes into pleasing, functional and responsive HTML with the help of Adobe Dreamweaver or any other advanced tools.
- Expertise in creating CSS and JS for accomplishing UI requirements
- Creating UI/UX wireframes for android and iOS app and providing icons in all resolutions to the development teams
- Non Technical RequirementsThe candidate should be meeting the following requirements -
- Should be able to envisage all features properly and should work on building a superior UX design.
- Should be self- driven, excited to work with a startup and should take initiatives on his own
- Should be a go-getter and a firm believer in the idea and product
- Creating PSD for mobile and web

Desired Skills and Experience

- Two or more years of UX design experience. Preference will be given to candidates who have experience designing complex solutions for complete digital environments, mainly Web site and Web-based applications, products
-
- Expertise in UI software such as Photoshop (is a must), Illustrator, etc
-
- Expertise in UX software such as Sketch, Framer.js, etc
-
- Good knowledge of HTML/CSS, knowledge of JavaScript will be a big plus
-
- Should have hands-on experience in at least one of the front-end framework such as Bootstrap, Foundation Framework or equivalent
-
- Extensive experience in using UX design best practices to design solutions, and a deep understanding of mobile-first and responsive design.

Skills:

HTML , Bootstrap , Basic knowledge of JavaScript , Photoshop , good ui/ux vision

How To Apply: Please apply for the position by filling the form on careers page with your Resume

Posted on: 28th April 2018